

miser so mean and stingy that even his pigs were eter- filing a saw. nally disgruntled, while his geese passed, and his

hens cackled derisively at the very sight of him. He never paid anybody more than half of what they were entitled to, and even the mosquitoes is no meat in we-un's cabin. And beavoided him in disgust as having a hide like an automobile tire and with | blessed day in the whole world when no more sustenance beneath it. No the good book says there should be man, woman, child or beast was ever fed by him without rendering services in advance for more than the food was, mighty favor." worth, and his neighbors were afraid to shake hands with him for fear that | terrupted the miser, hastily. "And I he would steal their finger-nalls. He skimmed his milk twice, made his way. It is merely an excuse for begdecayed apples into cider, and when gary. I wish you would go away." his horses got so old they could not work for him any longer he killed them and made them into give, and then used the glue to stick another mortgage on some neighbor's house. Of course everybody hated him worse than they did the fever and ague, but he did not mind that much because in one way or another he kept getting money and that was revenge enough for him.

Now, half a mile away from this man's house was the little cabin of old Ike Clay and his old wife Sally Ike was so poor that even the mice could not afford to board with him, much as they liked him, and his poverty was generally due to the fact that soon as he got anything he would give it away to the first one who asked him for it, for Ike and Sally lived in the belief that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Also they were very humble and religious and devoutly believed in everyday miracles and that the Lord would feed his children even as he did his sparrows and fishes. And up to this time it had always turned out that way, but now the day before Christmas had arrived and the cupboard was as empty as Ike's pockets, and Ike's pockets had nothing in them at all but holes. But his wife's faith was unwavering and she filled the pot with water and put it on the stove that it might be hot and ready for the offering when it came.

"Where our Christmas offerin' is a-goin' ter come from I shore don't know, but the Lord works in mysterious ways his wonders to perform, and I don't reckon he is a-goin' to ferget confide as the day slipped by and no special Providence befell them Ike began to become a trifle nervous-not that he doubted Providence in the least, but because he feared it might need a gentle reminder at this season of the year when there were so many demands being made upon it. So he decided to make a little special effort of his own. He knew well enough that it would be a waste of time to ask the miser to give him a goose or gobbler, but he had a faint hope that because of the season of the year the enough to give him credit on his wellknown honesty. So he set forth in the gathering dusk and sifting snow upon his mission and in a little time was tapping at the miser's back door.

"Go Away!"

For several minutes he tapped away and scuffled his feet and at last the miser came forth-not as a man comes forth, but in the manner you would expect to see a miser appear, first a nose and then a foot and then a hand and finally the rest of him, as if he grudged even his presence, and stood frowning at Ike through the gloom. Ike's clothes were ragged and flapping in the wind and his toes were leaking from the end of his shoes, but the smile on his face was cheerful and would have made a friend of any one except a miser who loved no man or woman or child or beast, and whose soul was shriveled and warped, and whose conscience was as tough as the

"What do you want?" he asked in a voice as disagreeable as the sound of Ike took off his hat and his bare head began to bob conciliatingly up hissed at him as be and down like the bobber of a fish line when the fish nibbles at the hook below. "I has come to see yu', Mistah Skimpum, fo' the reason that I am most pow'ful hungry an' because there cause this is the evenin' of the most peace on earth and good will to man, I am a-goin' to ask yu' to do me a

"I haven't got anything to give," indon't believe in Christmas giving, any-

Ike's head bobbed again. "Yes, suh, but I am not begging. I'll do yu' two days' hard work to pay yu' for a tur-"I don't need any help, I do my own work." "Yes, suh, I know that. But if you'll loan me a turkey for a couple of days I'll work for somebody else "No, I wouldn't trust you. And, besides, if the Lord wanted you to have a turkey he would send you one without your begging for it. So go away." Ike took a step backward with quiet is correct. Thank yu', suh," he said, and then went plodding homeward empty of hands and as hollow inside as an old bee tree, the wind nipping at his bare toes and howling after him like a wolf, and as a matter of fact the wolf of hunger was very close to him indeed. But Sally did not despair when she heard his story.

"That offerin' is shore a comin', Ike," she asserted, as she put another stick on the fire to keep the water in readiness. "I don't know jest how we-alls is a-goin' to get it, but I feels it a-comin' in the air. And jest yu' mark what I tell yu'."

Then they sat down together by the bare table and listened to the wind. And, my, how it began to how!! Away off in the northwest a great storm had been brewing that day and now it was approaching them like a giant in a rage. And as it passed along it came to the home of the miser and with a growl fell upon it. It gripped the house and shook it as a terrier does a rat, roaring down the chimney and whistling under the door until the shingles flew from the roof like feathers and the bones of the cringing miser rattled together in his fear. Then it pounced upon the fowlhouse, and cuffing off the roof blew with all its breath within, and in a second the night air was filled with flying fowls that flapped and squawked as they went sailing into the distance like puff balls scattered by a blast.

Over in their little cabin lke and Sally heard the uproar and fell upon their knees in prayer. Frightened though he was Ike did not forget his

"They say it is an ill wind that don't blow anybody good, dear Lord," "And I prays that out of be began. this heah mighty gale will fall a few grain from yu' bounteous store." And scarcely was the prayer finished than there came a fearful gust and the crash of a heavy body against the door. And the latch broke and the door flew wide and upon the floor there fell with a thud a ten-pound gobbler, wind-blown and ruffled to be sure, but fat, tender and soul-satisfying-the very bird, in fact, that the miser had fattened for his own sharp

Sally arose and held the big bird high in her hands. Faith, charity and happiness illuminated her lean face until it shone as from a light within. "Didn't I tell yn' so, old man," she cried, exultingly. "Didn't I tell yu" I felt it a-comin' in the air? Bless the good Lord, for he shorely works in mysterious ways his wonders to per-

(Copyright, 1908, by Wright A. Patterson.)

Good Cause for Gladness. "Alas!" sighed the moody man, there is no gladness for me in this

"Tut-tut!" said the optimist. "Surely there is a ray of sunshine for you, as there is for all of us if we but look for "No." replied the moody one. "I have not a single friend, and no relatives with whom I am on speaking "Cheer up, then," advised the other, with a shade of envy in his tone. 'Can't you be glad because you will no: have to buy any Christmas pres-

Dry Hair for Pompadour. If you wear a pompadour try this method after washing your hair before it is dry; Divide the hair across from ear to ear; then comb the front portion back over a coil composed of tissue paper; fasten securely in place with hairpins. This will give it a nice 'set" and a nice full pompadour will be the result.

Future Peril. Terrified Passenger (on ocean liner) -Captain, why is the steamer going so slowly and using its searchlight?

Captain-Don't be alarmed, madam;

the ship is in no danger. But in a fog like this we are always likely to run into somebody's blooming old balloon and make a nasty mess of it.-Chicago Tribune. First Signs.

"Well, my little girl is growing up. didn't realize it till this morning." "What happened?" "Oh, nothing, only I noticed she's wearing a young man's signet ring on her finger, and another youth's school pin on her waist. The next thing I know she'll be keeping me out of the parlor."-Detroit Free Press.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor, Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two and their friends, after more than two proposes of popularity, are numbered by made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this learnt the secondarity and the secondarity heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its supe-rior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in pop-ular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, four breath, masty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all," It Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special allments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some prepar tions sold for like purposes, its starling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pieasant Peliets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never

Parlor Stand

A beautiful new design in mahogany and would make a fine Xmas

$12.00

Other styles from $3.00 to $25.00.

CHRISTMAS SALE

An Unusual Opportunity to Buy Christmas Goods

From now until Christmas we will give the public a chance to buy Christmas Goods at prices that will mean a big saving in their Christmas expenditures.

Every Article in Our Store is Greatly Reduced

and the Sale Price marked in plain figures on large tags. Come as early as possible to this great Sale, as the first visitors get the choice bargains. You can save from 10 to 25% on every purchase.

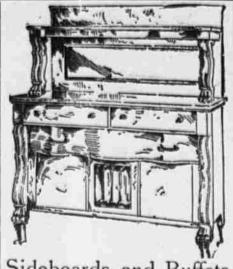

THIS IS THE SALE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

Rockers

big line to select We have some of the big, comfortable kind, with leather cushions.

$2.50 to $25

Sideboards and Buffets

Nothing better for a Christmas gift than a Sideboard or Buffet. We have some beauties in Oak, Early English and Mahogany. The largest line in

$16.00 to $75.00

Kitchen Cabinets

If you want to give the housekeeper something that will please her and make her work lighter by one-half, buy her a McDOUGAL Kitchen Cabinet. Look at our line. They are perfect. $15.00 to $35.00

Book Cases

of Book Cases in Golden Oak,

Early English and Mahogany. A

BRASS BEDS. An enormous line of high-grade Brass Beds. $21.75 to $60.00

THE HOMER S. WILLIAMS COMPANY

Cor. Market and Boardman Streets YOUNGSTOWN, O. Just One Square South of Diamond

The Dollar Savings & Trust Co.,

Central Square, YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

Pays 4% interest on savings deposits, the highest rate consistent with safe banking.

Capital - - $1,500,000.00 Resources = = $9,250,000.00

Farmers' Almanac

FREE!

Call here as soon as you can-so that you will be sure to get one-for a copy of the tamous Farmers' Almanac. This publication is the most reliable of all and has been issued regularly for 84 years. You can have a copy for the asking-with our compliments. If you can't manage to call in person, write us to mail you a copy.

The Citizens Savings Bank and Trust Company SALEM, OHIO

We Now Give

J. R. TABER, Canfield, O.

JOHN TABER. GROCERIES

Canfield, O.

Children's solid Gold

Ladies' solid Gold Engraved Band Rings, extra heavy, this sale only .. $1.00

Sterling Silver Heir Brushes and

Children's solid Gold Band | Ladies' and Gents' solid Gold Rings, warranted, this sale make of movements...$15.00

Gents' 14k Gold filled Watches, with full 17 jeweled Elgin of Walmovements, warranted $15.00

Gents' solid Silver Watches, firs

Ladies' hunting case, solid Silver atches, warranted Boys' solid Silver Watches, open faced beauties, warranted $5.50 for five years

Ladles' Brooches ...........500 up American Ladies' Black Silk Guards ..... 103 Sliver Shaving Cup and Brush $2.52 | Ladles' and Gents' Rolled Black Enameled Clocks. . . . . $3.50 | Gold plated Chains and Gold plated Clocks, good timers. Guards, warranted to wear

Sterling Silver Manicure Pieces.

124 WEST FEDERAL ST. YOUNGSTOWN,

filled Watches, with solid gold hinges and thumb pleces, warranted to wear

Ladies' and Gents' Rolled Gold plated Chains and Genuine Diamond Ear Drops ......$10.00 years ......$1.00

tage to our retail customers. GENUINE DIAMONDS Have a look at our immense stock of loose and mounted tham movement. $7.50 five years, with first class genuine Diamonds. We have a larger line than ever. Our American CE 95 prices are lower by 25 per cent. than others. Call in. Genuine Diamond Pins .....$5.00 up

> TRIPLE-PLATED-4-place Tea Set-Tea Pot, Sugar, $5.00 UMBRELLAS-We have the largest line in the city Ladies' and Gents' with sterling silver trimmings, at $1.25 up

> > WHOLEBALE AND REALL JEWELERS Have Your Goods Put Away Now and Avoid the Bush Orders by Mail Promptly Attended to.

Samuels Bros. 16th Annual Holiday Sale of Watches, Jewelry and Silverware

The wisdom of Christmas shoppers calling on us at once to see our many times larger and finer exhibits will appeal to all who consider what "first pick" from such an enormous stock really means. The natural growth of our business has always made opportunity here greater each year. There is nothing choice or desirable in Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry,

Cut Glass, Sterling Silver, Sterling Plated Ware, Clocks, Brio

a-Brac, etc., that we cannot sell to you at 25 to 50 per cent. less than they can be secured for from any other local house, and there are thousands and thousands of articles here that are exclusive and will not be seen elsewhere. The immense outlet our wholesale business gives us results in this advan-

Ladies' and Gents' Gold filled Watches, warranted to wear for 20 years, with

Ladies' White Stone Back Hair Combs....500

Ladies' Signet Hat Pins, engraved free......750 We carry a large assort-ment of Crosses from 50c up. See our fancy line.

sizes, all $3.50 Misses' open faced solid Silver Watches, enameled dials, $3.50 warranted for 3 years.....$3.50 Ladies' open faced solid Silver Watches, warranted for five years, fancy dial, fancy dial, $4.50 Men's solid Silver Watches, opfaced, every one

Boys' Nickel Watches, $2.00 Workingmen's Nickel Silver Nut Picks and Crackers, per

Rogers' Butter Knives and Sugar

Chain, warranted 10 years...$1.50 Men's solid Gold Enameled Emblem Children's Knife, Fork and Spoon

Extra large size fish scale mosh Silver Bags .....$1.50

124 WEST FEDERAL ST., YOUNGSTOWN.